Dear Mr. Garrison

I prefer to tell you before you
leave that this is
my birthday, so that I shall not forget what day
it was that we
met. I do wish that I were just two days older
and had been born
on the 4th of July!

*Thos. H. Parker,
Manchester, July 6, 1867.*

My wife is much pleased with the photographs. They will occupy an important place in our family album.
I shall gather you
several before your leaves England.

I write now to say
that Mr Steinthal
thinks that you
took the letters from Neal Dow & D Lees,
at the Bazaar.
He cannot find
them, and asking
did not hand them
back to me.

I hope to find them
as I wish to insert
in the Alliance News.

You will have a charming time at

Thos. H. Parker,
Manchester, July 6, 1877.

our friend - the Maurns.
I was there last summer with Paul Dow & I Lees, and
was never happier.
Please remember
me most kindly
to them all

You need not trouble to reply to this intrusion.
But if the letters
turn up amongst
your papers - please
burn them.

All the friends.
I meet with are delighted with your visit. We are all in love

with your count
I heard of two young
ladies who said
that they missed
Mr. Bellard, having such a Father - whom they could kiss
with deep affection.

When you come
again you will ever be more than ever Welcomed.

God bless you
all

Love right truly
yours for
Truth and Freedom
